PLANNING LTTA IRELAND & GREECE

A number of successful social enterprises are based in the former mental health facility park in Trieste. The vision of local artists and creators who realised the opportunity to repurpose locally available obsolete textiles into quality products such as backpacks and pencil cases. These beautifully constructed products not only provide products with a purpose, they deliver on social value, sustainability and the circular economy whilst providing employment and training support for people from vulnerable groups. A testament to the quality of the product is there most recent commercial contract to supply 2200 bags from recycled textiles including jeans for the upcoming visit of Pope Francis to Trieste. A wonderful project receiving a huge endorsement from the Vatican.

PARTNERSHIP PROGRESSION

GROUP LUNCH IN ATHENS

As the project approaches conclusion, we discussed sustainability of the project results and how we can continue to support client groups who were involved in the training pilot and who are developing a business.

We explored progressional opportunities, how we can progress the work to date and incorporate further digital including A.I.
